of Fall River. They met at Lawrence, before the West End A. C. The mill was for twelve rounds, but when the final round had forty seconds to go Sullivan secured a knockout with a right hand swing on the jaw. Up to the time this blow was delivered it was nip and tuck between the pair. Ashley in the first five rounds led often and reached Sullivan with blows in the stomach.

"Black Mississippi" and the "Buffalo Sunfower" had a hard tussle for six rounds before the Broadway A. C., Philadelphia. The fight was a ferce slugging bee from the start, and when the contest was finished the Bunflower looked very much withered. The Sunfower was in bad straits in part of the final round. He received two jabs on the jaw which made him grosgy, but when the Sunfower fought back he more than held his own. There was no decision.

Kid Goodman and Jack McClelland fought ten rounds to a draw in St. Louis. In the ninth round things looked blue for McClelland, but he managed to pull through and even up toward the last. The decision was well received.

The New York Americans showed their quality yesterday by making a determined dnish that landed the game for them in the ninth inning. The Clevelands kept hanging out hits of extra length and getdid so the New Yorks went after them, and he persistency and sand of the locals finally con for them the most exciting game played " New York this year. Griffith never worked as hard on the coaching lines, and the crowd. the New Yorks, rooted might and main for them. There also was plenty of good hall on the Cleveland side, especially the free, ereeching hits they made. Elberfeld refused to be considered a hospital candidate and played with his injured oe held together with court plaster and his foot swathed in bandages like a man with he gout. The fact that a portion of his enatomy was partially amputated did not mpair his usefulness. He could play ball with one foot gone. The man who most directly had to do with the winning of the game was Fultz, who sent Keeler home with a two bagger in the ninth inning and who in the same inning pulled down one of Lajoie's slashing swipes out near the centre field

Elberfeld hit for two bases in the first inning and Williams sent a liner to right which Hick-man jumped for and blocked. Elberfeld the plate, but Rickman supplemented his good stop with a good throw and had the ball in Bemis's hands ahead of Elberfeld. A jumping one-handed catch by keeler was another product of this inning. Keeler misjudged Lajoie's lick and had to make a catlike spring to stab the ball.

Flick tore off a home run to the right field fence in the second inning and New York scored in the same inning. McJuire lending a helping hand to Ganzel with a two bagger after Ganzel had been hit by a pitched ball. The Clevelands bunched wicked hits in the third inning. Moore singled to right, Bay bunted, Lush sacrificed, Bradley smashed out a triple and Lajoie larruped another threetimer. Powell thought things had gone far enough and made Flick take a trip from the sublime to the ridiculous. There was no home run for Flick this time; instead, he struck out. Hickman, also a mighty clubber, was thrown out by Elberfeld. Keeler's bunt, Fultz's hit to right, Elberfeld's sacrifice and Williams's timely hit gave the New Yorks two runs in

Although Thoney's bunt in the fourth was handled beautifully by Bradley. Thoney outfooted the throw McGuire again hit safely, Thoney going to third. Bemis made a bad throw when McGuire set out for second, and Thoney skedaddled in with the tying count. The Clevelands got back to their old tricks in the fifth. Bradley nearly upended Elberfeld with a scorching drive, and Lajoie brought in two runs with a home run over the left field fence. Nobody went for Flick's popfly, which fell near the first base line, and Flick took two bases on the stupid play. He was left, however, as Powell fanned Hickman, and Turner hit feebly to Powell.

The New Yorks were in serious mood when their half of the eighth inning began. Elberfeld sent a ground hit to Lajoie's left. Williams hit a ball which bounded so high before it fell at Bradley's feet that Williams, too, was safe. Anderson sacrificed very neatly. Ganzel singled and scored Elberfeld, and Williams came in on Thoney's fly to Flick. Everybody held his breath as the three Cleveland sluggers, Lajoie, Flick and Hickman, toed the plate in the ninth, but the latter two were not dangerous after Fultz had made his fine catch of Lajoie's long fly. the third inning. Although Thoney's bunt in the fourth was long fly way York in the ninth Keeler bunted. Bradley got the ball over a trifle low, and lickman dropped it. Then Fultz, after trying twice to sacrifice, wound up the game with a rush. He hit hard along the first base line, hard enough to score Keeler. The

DOLLY SPANKER BY A NOSE TAKES NEW ROCHELLE HANDI-

King Pepper Beats Toupee Down Eclipse Course A Gallop for Ort Wells -National Stable Shows Two Successful Two-Year-Olds-Four Favorites Lose.

CAP FROM LUX CASTA.

By the narrow margin of a nose, R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Dolly Spanker won the New Rochelle Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at seven and a half furlongs, from the Albemarle Stable's Lux Casta yesterday afternoon at Morris Park. Dolly Spanker. 9 to 5 favorite, gave away scale weight to his company; Lux Casta, who went up to 7 to 1, being in receipt of seven pounds, as McCue was two pounds overweight on the Donovan mare Redfern lost no time taking Deliy Spanker to the front, with Dalesman, Savable and Lux Casta following in a bunch. At the head of the stretch Dolly Spanker drew away, but Lux Casta, under a heavy drive, went after him with great gameness. It was a heartbreaker to the wire, where the finish was so close that the crowd was in doubt as to the result until the favorite's number was hoisted. Savable, backed down to twos, New York 15 5 730 St. Louis 10 11 476 Chicago 11 9 569 Boston 9 14 564 Brooklyn 12 10 548 Philadelphia 5 15 220 picked up 123 pounds and ran third, four lengths away and a neck before Dalesman. The time was 1:33½, half a second slower than the track record hung up by M. H. Tich-enor's Waswift in last year's race.

'With Hurstbourne and Gay Boy scratched from the Handicap run the entire length of the Eclipse course, Andrew Miller's Divination was pounded down to 9 to 10, only to be badly beaten. The victory of Frank J. Far-rell's King Pepper, 4 to 1, was chiefly due to a superb ride by Cormack. The Kantaka gelding was apparently beaten a sixteenth from home by Green Morris's Poupee, 6 to 1, but Cormick never relaxed his efforts and in a smashing finish King Pepper got the verdict by a head, Poupee beating Divination by but one Brooklyn player had reached third. Sheckard, first up in the ninth inning, made what seemed a short double, but the ball hit a bottle in the field and fooled Sebring, so that Sheckard get three bases. Lumley popped one back of third for which Wagner. Leach and Clarke ran and each stopped, allowing the ball to fall safe among them when any of the three men could by reaching out his hand have taken it and thrown Sheckard out, for he was away, thinking the ball was caught. Dillon's single scored Lumley.

The pitching of Poole was superb. There was an amusing incident in the opening inning, when a visiting band from Reading, Pa., came in, with some firemen, and taking its place on the bleachers played "Tessie, the Boston American League song, to which Pittsburg went down last fall. After the game some of the rougher element jostled the band and made it go on its way without playing more. The score: five lengths. The time was 1:12.

DeReszke, 5 to 1, captured the second race at seven furlongs, Wither's course. Shaw rode him with consummate skill, but it was a drive at the end to stall off Ella Snyder, 8 to 1. DeReszke winning by a half a length in1:26% Stuyve, 11 to 5 favorite, was third, three lengths away. Old Kilogram, 100 to 1, was in front to the stretch turn. E. E. Smathers's Witchcraft stopped at the last furlong.

The fourth and fifth races, for maiden two-vear-olds, were won by youngsters carrying was for fillies and geldings and was a gallop for Belle Strome, 30 to 1, who led always and had four lengths at the end, being timed in nad four lengths at the end, being timed in Ot53. S. S. Brown's Wayward Lass, by Sir Dixon—Lady Wayward, third choice, was second, three lengths in front of Highborn, 3 to 1, who beat Antimony a neck.

The fifth race, for colts at five furlongs, was a similar triumph for Invader, backed down to 15 to 1, the showed the way at all down to 15 to 1. He showed the way at all stages and was galloping at the end, four lengths before Mike Clancy's Tommy Waddell, 8 to 1, the latter beating Elegant, 16 to 5, a head. H. B. Duryea's Chieftain, the favorite, was bumped just after the start.

The first race at six and a half furlongs, Withers' course, was a gallop for the Drake stable, Ort Wells and Rapid Water, running one, two, with John E. McDonald's Hippo-crates a struggling third. The stable was a prohibitive favorite at 3 to 10, the pair showing their heels to the others from the outset.
Ort Wells was hard held at the end, his time being 1:20%, a second slower than the track record. Four favorites lost and Higgins rode two winners. The attendance was

RACING ON OTHER TRACKS. At Chicago.

CRICAGO, May 13.—A fast track, pleasant weather and a good card drew a big crowd to Worth today. The ring got a ferce drubbing on the fourth race, a handleap at a mile. terday, but threw from the sitting posture and got his man.

Bradley revels in bunts, no matter how hard, and his work at third in this city eclipses that of any other third baseman seen here.

Poor coaching cost the Cleveland's a run yesterday. Bay was held at third in the sixth inning when he could have transformed his three-bagger into a home run.

A batted ball hurt Jack Powell's left hand yesterday and Thoney hurt his ankie running to first. Griffith has had so many men hurt that he turns paic at any succeeding mishap, belt ever so slight.

Numerous professional clubs have been trying to sign Lynch, the crack pitcher of Brown University, but Pittsburg has finally landed him. Lynch was very effective for Brown last year, but the actitation there this year for pure amateur sport resulted in his not playing on the regular varsity team. He is considered fast enough for major league company and is expected to join Pittsburg as soon as the present college year ends.

A play that Created a good deal of discussion and the regular transfer and the present to the present to the present to the properties.

to join Pittsburg as soon as the present college year ends.

A play that created a good deal of discussion arose in the fifth inning yesterday. Flick sent up a pop fly that fell in fair ground about half way between the plate and first base. Flick got second on the scratch two-bagger. Those who were watching the ball and not the runner declared that the ball rolled beyond the foul line and was picked up by Gangel in foul territory. If this were the case and nobody touched the ball before it reached foul ground the hit was a foul. Flick should have been recalled. The course taken by the ball after it struck ground was generally overlooked, the "dumbness! of the play on New York's part in falling to catch the ball attracting most attention. Harry Howell of the St. Louis team, who was at the game, said the ball was picked up on foul ground, but possibly it struck Ganzel before it rolled out. Bob Emisie had such a bit to decide last year, a fly ball twisting into foul territory after it fell. He declared it a foul, and the players momentarily did not know what to make of the decision.

HAMBURG BELLE REPORTED TO HAVE BROKEN DOWN.

Last Year's Futurity Winner Goes Lame at Sheepshead Bay-Success of the National Stable's Two-Year-Olds-Big Money Lost on Divination-Notes. It was reported on excellent authority

last night that Sydney Paget's great three year-old filly, Hamburg Belle, by Hamburg Isiac, had practically broken down and would not race again. It was impossible to confirm the story as Trainer A. J. Joyner had gone to bed and could not be disturbed when THE SUN called him up on the telephone, while Mr. Paget could not be found. But the story that was told to THE SUN man after the races at Morris Park yesterday by two responsible track officials was to the effect that Hamburg Belle, after working a fast mile at Sheepshead Bay in the morning, pulled up very lame, suffering from an injury below the pastern, which is generally the cause of permanent retirement from racing.

Hamburg Belle was the champion filly of the two-year-olds last season. She won the rich Futurity in a sensational finish from the late W. C. Whitney's Leonidas, but after that race it was discovered that she was lame and Trainer Joyner did not send her to the races again. She was eligible for the Metropolitan Handicap, but did not start because her owner wished to send her to the post fer the Brooklyn, the Suburban or the Brighton Handicap. She had been doing some grand work at the Bay, and Trainer Joyner felt sure a week ago that the filly would take a hard beating the first time she started.

It is generally believed that Mr. Paget nerely owns the racing qualities of Hamburg Belle and that if she is retired she will go to James B. Haggin's Rancho Del Paso or Elmendorf Stud. Mr. Haggin bred her and only last Sunday he went to the Bay to look her over. Her mishap will be sincerely regretted by the racing public, for she was always a prime

The victories of the two-year-olds Belle Strome and Invader in the colors of the Na-tional Stable at Westchester yesterday were the talk of the track. Belle Strome is a full sister to the race mare Eugenia Burch, being by Ben Strome out of The Humber. She was quoted at 50 to 1 in some of the books and closed generally at 30 to 1. Her triumph was so impressive that the crowd played her stable mate Invader, a colt by Eher— Feiseen, who was backed from 30 to 1, to 15 to 1 and who came home on the bit in royal style. Higgins rode both youngsters. The National Stable is owned, it is said, by A. H. amar, a Wall street operator who raced last year under the name of S. J. Smith, osed to be a business associate. Lamar was at the track when his two-year-olds won but whether he played them or not nobody seemed to know. They were trained for the races by S. J. Lawlor and came here some time ago after spending the winter at Brook-

Belle Strome resembles Eugenia Burch in many ways and her performance con-vinced the turi sharps that she possesses all the sterling qualities of her celebrated sister. She beat a good field so easily that she cannot be overlooked in future events.

Among those who finished behind her were James R. Keene's Veto, by Ben Brush—Pro-hibition II., hence a half brother to Injunction; H. B. Duryea's Chieftain, by Meddler-The Lioness, a splendid looker that had worked very fast, and Banastar's full sister, Blessing's Lost. John E. Madden started a filly named Salt and Pepper, by Henry of Navarre —Greenwich, who finished next to last in Invader's spreadeagle victory stamped invader's spreadeagie victory stamped him a colt of class. He could have run close to the track record if hard pressed. Big money was lost on Bank and Elegant, who closed equal favorites at 16 to 5. Madden's pair, Migraine, by Top Gallant—Cinderella, and Britisher, by Plaudit—British Blue Blood, ware hocked down to five but were far and Britisher, by Italian were far away from the money. P. J. Dwyer's Red Friar, by The Friar—Sunbeam, was another magnet that failed to draw the money out of the cashiers' boxes. Mike Clancy has not had a chance to yell lately, but he cut loose when his Magian-Frantic colt, Tommy Waddell, ran second to Invader. The books enjoyed their greatest success of the afternoon when Divination was beaten in the last race. The Horoscope filly had worked in lightning fashion on Thursday and as far as she was concerned the race was said to be "in." All of the big players and the majority of the crowd backed her, the odds dropping from 8 to 5 to 0 to 10. Frank J. Farrell and his friends cleaned up handsomely with King Pepper, who is close to his est form just now.

When Art Wells and Rapid Water finished first and second in the opening event, with John E. McDonald's Hippocrates third, a voman who sat behind the press stand begao hiss like a serpent.

"What is the matter?" asked a neighbor who did not see anything wrong in the race.
"Why, that old black thing down there!" she cried, between hisses. "He couldn't get second! Hiss! Hiss! Siss! Siss! Oh, Siss!" t was learned later that the woman bet $3 to win $1 on Hippocrates a place. She was nissing all the rest of the afternoon.

Kilogram, who ran in J. E. Widener's colors n the second race, though high in flesh, showed that he still has much of his old speed. In all probability he will be put over the jumps at an early date.

There was much comment because Tommy Burns rode E. R. Thomas's Young Henry in the second event instead of either of the regular stable jockeys, Redfern and H. Phillips, who did not have a mount in the race. It was generally understood that Burns had the leg up because a vigorous rider was needed, as Young Henry is a sluggish animal and wants plenty of urging. Burns, however, could not keep the Henry Young gelding from being cut off in the first furlong.

Lucien Lyne had his first mount here since his return from England, in the second event, when he rode Stuyve. Incidentally, it seemed strange to see Odom finish thirteenth and last on a 100 to 1 shot, Lord Advocate, in the same

The Drake-Gates combination had a good bet on Savable in the New Rochelle. Davy Johnson backed the Salvator colt heavily to be second. Mattie Corbett's Dalesman, leased from James R. Keene, made his first bow since his arrival from England, in this event. He was evidently short of work and the race did him a lot of good. Patsy McCue, who rode Lux Casta, could not ge below 115 pounds, so the Donovan mare carried two pounds overweight. The New Rochelle, first run in 1898, has been won by Royal Stag. Previous, Survivor, Knight of Rhodes, Hatasoo and Waswift.

Jockey J. Jones, who went to the Coast last fall with Doc Kyle and Frank Regan, arrived here yesterday. He had a successful season in California, making a record of thirteen winters in one week. He can ride at 94 pounds. The theatrical profession was well repre-

Lew Fields and Charley Grapewin. Miss Russell is a daily visitor. Joe Yeager started a two-year-old colt by Halma-Sepia in the fifth race, named Hildebrand after the jockey, who is under contract to the plunger, and the boy had the mount. The combination looked like a hunch

Land of Clover would have been a starter in the International Steeplechase to-day but for the fact that he met with a slight accident recently.

A number of Sydney Paget's horses will be sold in the paddock at Morris Park before the races to-day. Among those to be offered are Singing Master. Consideration, Waterford, Boxwood, Gotowin, Brush Up, Sandy Andy, Trametor and Clover Hampton. It is confidently believed that E. R. Thomas's INTERNATIONAL CHESS. American Player Marshall Still Leads -Janowski Beats Pillsbury.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 18.—The American player Marshall still has a clean score after the conclusion of the twelfth round in the international chess tournament played here to-day, while Janowski and Lasker are next in order. Pillsbury was beaten to-day by the Parisian expert, Jan-owski, in a game which really ought to have been won by Pillsbury almost at the start but owing to an error Janowski escaped The other results follow:

Harvard Beats Columbia in Lacrosse Game. Superiority in passing and general stick game played against Columbia on South Field yesterday afternoon. The Cambridge players were returned victors by a score of 3 goals to 1, after a hotly contested match. The first half ended without either team coring, and it was not until late in the second period that the Crimson players began to shoot with greater accuracy. The great work of Weake, the Harvard goal keeper, was responsible for only a single point being made by Columbia. The game puts Harvard in line for the inter-university championship held last year by Columbia.

BOSTON, May 18.—Fay Ingalls won the golf championship of Havard to-dary by defeating A. L. White 5 up and 4 to play in an 18-hole match, over the Brookine Country Club course. Ingalis played wonderfully, getting a 74 for the 18 holes, and at that he lost three strokes by driving out of bounds. On the greens his work was of a high order, as he ran down puts from almost any point his ball happened to be.

MISS DOD A GOLF CHAMPION. Wins in Final Round in England From Miss May Hezlet.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN LONDON, May 13 .- In the final round of the ladies' golf championship at Troon to-day Miss Lottie Dod beat Miss May Hezlet, by Miss Lottie Dod is a member of the Moreton, England) Golf Club, and last year she lost in the ante-penultimate round, by 1 up, to Miss M. E. Stuart. In the round before Miss Stuart had put out Miss May Heziet, her clubmate, by 1 up, and she lost in the semi-final to Miss Rhona Adair, by the same score, all of which shows that Miss Dod possesses "class," a fact again demonstrated at Troon. Incidents of the tournament were the defeat of Miss Mabel Higgins of Chicago in the first round by Miss Rhona Adair, by 3 and 2, and the defeat of the champion in the fourth round, by 4 and 2, by Miss May Hezlet, champion of 1899 and 1902.

Terry McGovern's manager, Sam Harris, has received an offer of a liberal purse or percentage of the gross receipts from Morris Levy, matchmaker of the Hayes Valley Club, San Francisco, for a 20-round bout between McGovern and Eddie Hanlon. Levy proposed that the match take place in July.

Harris up to date has not answered the message, and it is doubtful if he ever will, as he has other plans for McGovern. He says that McGovern will not fight any one else for the present except Jimmy Britt or Young Corbett. If McGovern refuses to take on Hanlon, Levy will try and arrange a scrap between Hanlon and Martin Canole. Canole recently gave Britt a rattling fight on the Coast and is very popular there.
